

And while he lived an independent and purposeful life, little would have been possible without the unconditional, unyielding love and loyalty of his devoted wife of 44 years, Eileen and their greatest shared accomplishment, son Sean, a former NFL player.

Mr. Speaker, I honor the life of Mr. Joseph E. Ryan. I ask that my colleagues join me in expressing our deepest condolences to all of the Ryan family, including his daughter-in-law, Mary Elizabeth, his grandchildren, Emmie, Sienna and Colin, his brothers, sisters and many friends and colleagues as they join together at a celebration of his life on Saturday, June 25 at St. Joseph's University Church.

The extraordinary story of his life will continue to be told by all those who will always remember: here was a man who could not stand himself, yet made it his life's work to always stand up for others.

OLNEY/RICHLAND CO. 175TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 5, 2016

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge the Dodransbicentennial, or 175th Anniversary of Richland County. Richland County was created in 1841 by combining sections of western Lawrence County and eastern Clay County. Olney was named the seat of Richland County due to its centrality and desirable proximity to the Fox River.

Over the years, many students have benefitted from being able to receive a quality and affordable education at Olney Central College. In addition to its support of education, Olney has a marvelously rich history of being a center of transportation, medicine, culture, and agriculture for Southeastern Illinois.

A large colony of albino squirrels first found sanctuary in Olney in the early 1900s. Because of this, inquiring visitors from near and far are attracted to the "Home of the White Squirrels." Olney and Richland County are the home to many churches and volunteer organizations, as well.

I look forward to the continued prosperity of Olney and Richland County largely due to its citizens who respect their history and have a vision for their future; I also offer my congratulations on the occasion of the 175th anniversary celebration which will take place from July 22–24, 2016.

HONORING THE 300TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE INCORPORATION OF GEORGETOWN, MAINE

HON. CHELIE PINGREE

OF MAINE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 5, 2016

Ms. PINGREE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 300th birthday of a town in my District. On June 13, 1716, Georgetown was incorporated as the 10th town in the Province of Maine.

Located on an island between the mouths of the Kennebec and Sheepscot Rivers, Georgetown has a rich history that goes back far longer than 300 years. For generations, the Abenakis knew the island as a place for good spear fishing. John Parker—to whom many current residents can still trace their lineage—built its first permanent homestead on land he purchased for a hogshead of rum and a few pumpkins in 1649. And its location on the border between what was then New France and New England brought several conflicts during the French and Indian Wars of the 1700s.

Thankfully, though, peace did eventually come to Georgetown. Since then, generations of Mainers have made their living there in boatbuilding, fishing, and other trades. And countless visitors have gone there searching for the best of what the Maine coast has to offer. Indeed, with the town's picturesque scenes, wicked good lobster, and hard-working people, that's exactly what they've found.

Mr. Speaker, it makes me very proud to represent a community with such a rich history and uniquely Maine character. My congratulations to Georgetown and all its residents on this wonderful occasion—and my best wishes for many more birthdays in the future.

TRIBUTE TO AL PIZZANO

HON. DAVID YOUNG

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. YOUNG of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Mr. Al Pizzano, Chief of Police of Pleasant Hill, Iowa and retired Captain of the New York City Police Department's elite Emergency Service Unit. Chief Pizzano assumed his post as Chief of Police of Pleasant Hill in September 2015. He was recently honored in New York by the city's mayor and police chief during its annual Medal Day ceremony which pays tribute to the exemplary public servants whose selfless acts have made the ultimate sacrifice while protecting the lives and safety of all Americans. He was one of 53 recipients for the awards.

Chief Al Pizzano received the Police Combat Cross, the Department's second highest award, granted to members who have successfully and intelligently performed an act of extreme heroism while engaged in combat with an armed adversary. On April 8, 2012, Chief Pizzano and five members of the elite Emergency Service Unit were called to negotiate with an armed suspect, were injured in the ensuing gunfire, but avoided civilian casualties during the apprehension.

Chief Al Pizzano began his law enforcement career in 1987 with the New York Police Department, training and supervising 200 officers and 30 civilian employees while commanding the K-9 Resources throughout New York City. He left the Department to join Homefront Protective Group where he analyzed police agencies and administered police-related training courses before coming to Iowa as Police Chief of Pleasant Hill.

Mr. Speaker, I applaud and congratulate Chief Al Pizzano for this award and for sharing his servant leadership with an entire community. I am proud to represent him in the United States Congress. I ask that my colleagues in the United States House of Representatives join me in congratulating Chief Al Pizzano and wishing him nothing but continued success.

TRIBUTE TO RONALD NABAKOWSKI

HON. MARCY KAPTUR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 5, 2016

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate a true public servant and fellow Ohio politician, Ronald Nabakowski. Ron passed away Friday, June 10th after a long struggle with ALS, and will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

At the time of his passing Ron was retired, fully enjoying his time with family and actively promoting the redevelopment of downtown Lorain. He had been a public servant in government for forty-two years.

Prior to his retirement Ron served as Clerk of Court of Common Pleas in Lorain County for fourteen years, after a long career as State Senator, Lorain County Commissioner, and Director of the Ohio Lottery on Governor Dick Celeste's cabinet.

Throughout his long career Ron remained dedicated to making government work better for the people. A Democrat, Ron did not hesitate to reach across the aisle to create comprehensive legislation that could pass the State legislature, and to ensure the community he represented flourished.

One of his proudest moments in public service came while serving as Director of the Ohio Lottery. During his tenure, 17 cents of each state dollar went towards primary and secondary education in Ohio—a record that would remain unrivaled by subsequent Lottery administrations.
